BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS
AGES 6 TO 8

Reading is an essential part of learning. Have fun exploring your local library!

Our thanks to Communication-Jeunesse for researching and selecting the books: communication-jeunesse.qc.ca. These recommendations can be adapted to your child's interests.
BOOK
RECOMMENDATIONS
AGES 6 TO 8

GAYA ET LE PETIT DÉSERT
Gilles Vigneault - Ill.: Stéphane Jorisch - La montagne secrète - 2016 - 52 pp.
$22.95 - ISBN: 978-2-924217-75-7 - 1 book; 1 CD - ages 7 and up / Level 3
Genre: Narrated story
Beautifully illustrated by Stéphanie Jorisch, this story by Gilles Vigneault follows Gaya, a curious little girl who's full of ideas. One morning, Gaya discovers that the well near her grandfather's house has gone dry. She questions the residents of the forest to find out what happened. But all the creatures pass the blame, leaving Gaya stumped. Who's telling the truth?

ROSE LATULIPE
$4.95 - ISBN: 978-2-7338-4673-5 - ages 3 and up / Level 1
Genre: Story and legend
Rose Latulipe loves to dance. The day before Lent, when dancing will be forbidden for 40 days, Rose decides to throw a ball. She's allowed on one condition: everyone must stop dancing at midnight. Rose agrees—but what happens when a mysterious stranger shows up at the ball five minutes before midnight?

HURONS-WENDATS ET LE TROC (LES)
Michel Noël - Ill.: Joanne Ouellet - Dominique et compagnie - "Premières Nations" collection - 2016 - 32 pp.
$9.95 - ISBN: 978-2-89739-269-7 - Available in electronic format - ages 7 and up / Level 2
Genre: Story and legend
The Wendat people are renowned traders. Every fall, they prepare a delicious sagamité stew to welcome visitors from the great forests of the North who come to exchange goods. Learn more about the Indigenous Huron-Wendat in this fascinating tale.

CORA TSOUFLIDOU
$15.95 - ISBN: 978-2-89770-059-1 - ages 8 and up / Level 2
Genre: Non-fiction
As the founder of the Cora restaurant chain, Cora Tsouflidou is an example of a successful Quebec entrepreneur. Her creativity revolutionized breakfast! This courageous woman was determined to create and grow her own business. You’re in for a story full of passion, generosity—and, of course, delicious recipes!

Reading is an essential part of learning. Have fun exploring your local library!

Our thanks to Communication-Jeunesse for researching and selecting the books: communication-jeunesse.qc.ca.
These recommendations can be adapted to your child's interests.
BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS
AGES 6 TO 8

Reading is an essential part of learning. Have fun exploring your local library!

POISSONS ÉLECTRIQUES (LES)
Erik Harvey-Girard - Éditions de La Pastèque - 2017 - 72 pp. $26.95 - ISBN: 978-2-89777-017-4 - ages 7 and up / Level 2
Genre: Non-fiction

Electric fish can be found all over the world. Scientists never get tired of studying them because they’re not like other fish! What’s so special about them? Why are they called electric? What makes them so fascinating? Dive into this book to find out!

SERPENT DE MER (LE)
Genre: Mini-novel

It’s going to be a long, serpentine road to the island and its hidden treasure thanks to the sea snake hanging around the Petits Pirates’ ship. The massive monster has deadly jaws. Which of the Petits Pirates will be offered up as a sacrifice?

EXPLOMONDE, NO 4, OCTOBRE 2017
Collectif - Publications BLD - 2017 - 36 pp. - $4.95 - ISSN: 1499-4801 - ages 7 and up / Level 2
Genre: Magazine

We’re off to Morocco in this new issue of Explomonde! Get ready to discover its landscapes, architecture, and history. With recipes, crafts, reporting, and comic strips, young readers will become real experts on Moroccan culture!

FLORE ALORS!
VOL. 2, NO. 2, SEPTEMBER 2016; VOL. 3, NO. 1, MARCH 2017
Collectif - Les Amis du Jardin botanique de Montréal - 2017 - 20 pp. $3.48 - ISSN: 2369-3738 - ages 7 and up / Level 2
Genre: Magazine

If you’re a kid who’s into plants, this is the magazine for you! Pistache the squirrel helps little readers (and big ones too!) have fun as they make fascinating discoveries about the world of plants. Learn all about flowers, trees, and everything in between with Flore alors!

Our thanks to Communication-Jeunesse for researching and selecting the books: communication-jeunesse.qc.ca. These recommendations can be adapted to your child’s interests.
BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS
AGES 6 TO 8

Reading is an essential part of learning. Have fun exploring your local library!

CHACUN SA FENÊTRE POUR RÊVER
Pierre Labrie - Ill.: Mika - Soulières éditeur - "Ma petite vache a mal aux pattes" collection - 2016 - 88 pp. $9.95 - ISBN: 978-2-89607-370-2 - ages 8 and up / Level 2
Genre: Poetry

Nadine's favourite place to read is in her comfy armchair by the window. And she never gets bored, because with every page she turns, the words and pictures transport her to another world. What a wonderful way to discover the poetry hidden in our everyday lives! For Nadine, books are dear friends...

POÈSIES POUR LA VIE
Genre: Poetry

Is poetry a dandelion or a mockingbird? Are you a Monday poet or a Tuesday poet? One thing's for sure: with so many words and so many rhymes, you can write poems about everything from the sun and the moon to the sea and the clouds. Best of all, you can write heartfelt messages to the people you love.

SAMEDI DES GÉNIES (LE)
Genre: Poetry

These robots never get tired of working. For example, they love spending Saturday mornings washing their car—right down to the tires, carburetor, spark plugs, glove box, and dashboard. But when there's no more work to do, they get bored. So, they decide to buy a boat to clean and fix up as a family. What a great summer!

NATHAN, ASTRONAUTE
Genre: Novel

A few seconds ago, the meteorite was just a bright speck in the sky. Now, it's as big as a dodgeball. There's no time to lose! Nathan and his co-pilot, William, have an important decision to make if they want to avoid impact: should they go right or left?